

Izzy Bennett

Android Software Engineer with two years of experience working with a team to improve, maintain, and implement features for Android Applications with over millions of downloads.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

June 2020–Present

Alarm.com, Tysons, VA

Android Software Engineer

- Primary code writer for large scale Android projects including a complete UI/UX refresh and implementing Dark Mode across the app.
- Review code and provide useful feedback for teammates to improve the quality of the codebase and prevent bugs.
- Collaborate with product managers, quality engineers, UI designers, and other software engineers to implement features and improvements for the Android application and backend services.
- Write unit tests and UI tests utilizing Espresso, Roboelectric, and JUnit.
- Create build scripts and Gradle tasks for improving the build process.
- Mentored an intern and guided them in collaborating with the team to successfully produce an upcoming feature.

June 2019–August 2019

Alarm.com, Tysons, VA

Android Software Engineer Intern

- Reconstructed the notification system for the Android application and implemented bundled notifications.
- Responsible for numerous bugs fixes and minor enhancements.
- Collaborated with product managers and quality engineers for improving accessibility for the Android application.

August 2018–May 2020

George Mason University, Fairfax, VA

Undergraduate Teaching Assistant

- Awarded Distinguished UTA for Spring 2020 and Outstanding UTA for Spring 2019.
- Responsible for Computer Science Ethics and Law, Computer Systems and Programming, Intro to Low Level Programming, and Intro to Computer Science.
- Graded assignments and provided feedback to help guide students towards success.
- Directed students to improving their programming skills through labs and Piazza.

EDUCATION

August 2017–May 2020

George Mason University, Fairfax, VA

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science

GPA: 3.86

ADDITIONAL SKILLS

- Languages: Kotlin, Java, JavaScript, C#, Ruby, Groovy
- Tools: Android Studio, Git, Atlassian Suite, Espresso, Roboelectric, React.js, .NET